

Solicitation, Canvassing, and Surveys

Solicitation and canvassing of the public or the staff is not permitted on Sparta Free Library property or property under the control of the Library Board of Trustees.

Soliciting is defined as the sale or distribution of merchandise, sales materials, tickets, insurance, coupons, magazine subscriptions, political campaign material, or anything not connected with the work of the Library.

Canvassing is defined as petitioning or distributing written materials or soliciting for political, charitable or religious purposes on Sparta Free Library property or property under the control of the Library Board of Trustees.

The Library provides a space for the display of public notices, subject to the guidelines set forth in its Bulletin Board Policy.

The Library provides a space for distribution of flyers, booklets, and similar materials of government and non-profit organizations connected with the work of the Library.

Surveying of groups or individuals may only be done in conjunction with output measures or other similar surveys designed to quantify library use or satisfaction with library services with the authorization of the Library Board.
